FIRE DESTROYS CHURCH.

Home of Roznoke Baptist Congrega-tion Burned to Ground. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., February 8 .- Fire this morning about 11 o'clock totally de-stroyed the High Street Baptist Church, stroyed the High Street Baptist Church, colored, and damaged the parsonage next door, entailing a loss of $50,000. The fire was one of the most serious that has visited this city in years. It was discovered a few minutes after the Sunday morning services had begun. The auditorium was filled with the congregation, but every one got out, and there was no panic. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Burks, was the last to leave the building, and he was slightly injured about his back when he fell.

The building was erected in 1967 at a cost of $47,000. Insurance on the church amounts to $20,000. The property adjoining the church was damaged to the extent of $2,000, this being originally the parsonage, but is now used as a rented dwelling.

A high giant mental control of the control of the church was damaged to the extent of $2,000. The property of the control of the contro A high wind was blowing and the firemen worked vailantly to prevent the spread of the flames. High Street Baptist Church was the second largest colored church in the State, with a congregation of 980. It was one of the handsemest colored church buildings in Virginia. The walls fell, but the steeples remained intact, necessitating the use of dynamite to remove them.

The fire was due to a defective flue in the furnace.

Norra Taylor Badly Injured. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cape Charles, Va., February 8.—
Norra Taylor, a white man, twenty four years old, residing at Makemil
Park, was taken to the Sallsbury Hos Park, was taken to the Sallsbury Hospital this morning, and is in a critical condition. It is said that Taylor left Makemie Park late yesterday evening for Hallwood, driving a horse and burgy on the right of way of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, and it is believed that the horse became frightened and crossed the tracks, throwing him out. The burgy was entirely demolished and Taylor received numerous body bruises, as well as a broken leg. Taylor was found this morning by the night ticket agent at Makemie Park.
